Hello Sam,

a huge thank you for your empathetic words. They brought tears to my eyes and almost took my breath away. It seems like a miracle to me that after so much time, new perspectives on Nelson's life are opening up again.

I was completely unaware of the two websites "Macgamescout" and "Macappscout" until now. Of course, I will include this information in the memoir; perhaps it will reveal further connections.

I gladly accept your offer to view Nelson's correspondence with you.

And if it's alright with you, I would also like to use your email to me and, if necessary, excerpts from the correspondence—but only with your permission, of course.

I would also like to know your address, or at least your place of residence, but not for publication; I would just like to keep it for my own personal use.

In return, here is my address:

Wolf Eggers
Frankenstr. 18
53489 Sinzig
Germany

And if you'd like to learn more about me, here are the links to my websites:

Sincerely,
Wolf Eggers
